FREEDOM AT LAST COMES TO THE OPPRESSED PEOPLE OF THE CZAR

THE CZAR CONCEDES LAW MAKING POWER

Romanoff Dynasty Ends and Witte is Made Premier and Becomes Man of Hour.

LAWS HEREAFTER BE MADE BY PEOPLE IN LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

The Uprising Suppressed and Strikes Declared Off and Jubilant People Parade Streets.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The text of the imperial manifesto was published last night.

It expresses great sorrow on account of the present troubles and agitation. It said:

"The happiness of the Russian sovereign is indissolubly bound up with happiness of our people and sorrow of our people is sorrow of sovereign. From the present disorders may arise a great national disruption. They menace integrity and unity of our empire.

The emperor sets forth his plan of government as follows, and appeals to the people to assist in restoring order and promises to use every means at his command to carry out plan:

"First—To extend to the population immutable foundations of civic liberty, based on real inviolability of persons, freedom of conscience, speech, union and association.

"Second—Without suspending the already ordered election to state Duma, to invite to participate in the Duma, as far as limited time before convocation of Duma will permit those classes of population now completely deprived of electoral rights, leaving the ultimate development of principle of electoral rights in general to the newly established legislative order of things.

"Third—To establish as an unchangeable rule that no law shall be enforced without approval of the state Duma and that it shall be impossible for the elected of the people to exercise real participation in supervision of legality of acts of authorities appointed by us."

Joy at Odessa.

Odessa, Oct. 31.—The news of the czar's manifesto was received early this morning with great demonstrations and wild enthusiasm and work was completely suspended. Soldiers and policemen joined in the demonstrations, and the strike ended immediately.

Strike Off at Moscow.

Moscow, Oct. 31.—The strike committee has ordered all working men to return to work, and telegraphic communication will be re-established.

All Railroads Resuming.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Railroads are resuming operations and fifty thousand passengers who were stranded in various parts of the country, owing to the strike, are now being sent to their destinations.

Crowds Were Jubilant.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The streets were filled all night by jubilant crowds rejoicing over the czar's manifesto. Several thousand marched to Ploshchadnostel, the Procurator of the Holy Synod, and hissed him, loudly shouting, "Down with the enemy of liberty."

Fleet Not in Mutiny.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—There appears to be no foundation for the rumor of mutiny on the vessels of the Black Sea Fleet, which are in circulation in Odessa and which have been industriously propagated by the strikers here for several days.

Relief for Political Prisoners.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—Count Witte promises immediate relief to all political prisoners except those dangerous to the public peace.

Meetings in Finland.

Helsingfors, Oct. 31.—Meetings are being held throughout Finland demanding the calling together of the Landtag to replace the domestic government with trustworthy Finlanders. The theaters, banks, schools and shops are closed and the newspapers' union is uncensored.

Trouble Ahead For Witte.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The czar arrived at the Winter Palace today. The only paper published this morning was the official Messenger. Many radicals express their suspicion of Witte, declaring that he is little more than a liberal bureaucrat, and opposed to universal suffrage. It is believed that friction will result between Witte and the more liberal element.

Russians Given Freedom.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—"I am sure American people, who understand what freedom is, and the American press, which voices the wishes of the people, will rejoice with the friendly Russian nation at this moment, when Russian people have received from his imperial majesty promises and guarantees of freedom, and will join in the hope that Russian people with the government for their peaceful introduction. Only thus will it be possible to secure full benefits of freedom conferred upon the people."

Count Witte, Russia's first premier, last night sent the above message to the American people. He had just arrived at his residence on Kamennovv Prospect in Peterhof, where the emperor two hours before had given his final approval to the manifesto and to the program which will forever end the rule of absolutism exercised by him and his Romanoff ancestors for three hundred years.

A simple perusal of the manifesto shows how complete is the emperor's abdication of his autocratic power.

The very style of the document is clear and direct and devoid of verbose, vague and bombastic phraseology which heretofore has characterized his majesty's manifestos.

It not only betrays real authorship, but shows that the emperor at last has irrevocably bowed to the inevitable.

He does not even conceal the fact that discontent and agitation of his subjects has driven him to take the step and practically yields everything—civil liberty, the inviolability of person, and liberty of conscience, speech and assembly.

He not only converts the farcical imperial Duma, with only consultative power, into an absolute legislative assembly without assent of which no measure shall become a law and before which all governmental authorities must answer, but

RAILWAY WRECKS KILLED TWENTY

Some Horrible Scenes in the Santa Fe Disaster.

Thirteen in All Killed—One Man's Foot Pinned in a Hot Stove and Slowly Roasted.

AND ONE FREIGHT WRECK

Kansas City, Oct. 31.—Thirteen persons were killed and thirty injured in the wreck on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train, known as the California Express, which while running at 35 miles an hour, struck a loose rail, ditching five cars, one mile east of Blue River.

The wreck occurred on a curve where the jagged rock walls on each side of the track form a bluff almost a hundred feet high.

The engine was going so rapidly it passed the loose rail in safety. The mail car, immediately behind, jumped the track and struck the side of the bluff and four cars following, ploughed through it and shot against the high stone wall opposite.

The sides of the coaches were torn off by scraping against the wall and the passengers and the trainmen were ground against the wall and were either killed outright or badly hurt.

The smoking car split the baggage car ahead of it just below the floor line, and the baggage car when it stopped was on top of what was left of the smoker.

None of the passengers in the car which remained on the track were hurt.

In many instances it was necessary to dig under the debris to extricate the unfortunate victims.

T. D. Whitmore in the smoker had been pinned against a hot stove with one foot in the stove suffering untold agony as his foot was slowly burning by live coals.

This was one of the many agonizing scenes witnessed by the rescuers.

The dead were taken in charge by coroner and brought to local morgues. The dead:

POLICE BELIEVE A WOMAN GUILTY

Of Cutting Up the Body of Miss Geary.

Morris Nathan Has Told All He Knows and Is On the Verge of Collapse.

A WOMAN IS IN THE CASE

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—It is the firm conviction of every one who is in touch with the case that while a charge of murder has been lodged against Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the "Shepherd King" company, in connection with the Winthrop suit case mystery, he is not the principal in the affair and is held because it is believed he can throw more light on the crime than anyone else.

It is known that Nathan admitted that he was intimate with Miss Geary and in his statement he implicated a woman who he says, conducted a maternity home in Tremont street, Boston.

The Boston police were immediately notified by McQuaide and they started out in search of the woman.

Nathan stated to the police officials that he was not aware of the girl's condition. He declares that they were to have been married. He said he overheard a conversation between Miss Geary and two girls who were appearing at the parks in Hartford, in which one of the girls advised Miss Geary to go to the Tremont street house for treatment. Nathan said he was not responsible for Miss Geary going to a hospital.

That the crime was done by a woman is the belief of the police officials. No hardened criminal, they said, would have disposed of the body by cutting it up and packing it in a suit case and then allowing the case to float.

Furthermore, the leaving of the rings on the fingers is an indication that the crime was committed by a person unaccustomed to crime.

The authorities appear to believe that Nathan was unaware of the murder of the girl and that he had no part in that crime, but they seem to think that he is responsible for her receiving treatment.

Nathan is on the verge of collapse.

Nathan's story of having last seen the murdered girl at the subway station at Boylston and Tremont streets, Boston, on the night of Sept. 9, is borne out by several members of the company. He had constantly been with the company and returned to Boston twice, and made a visit to Providence, R. I., in search of the girl.

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION

Of the Boston Suit Case Mystery is Now On.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—A thorough investigation of the Boston suit case murder was commenced this morning with the arrival of two Boston officers. Efforts will be concentrated to ascertain why Nathan brooded, and what was the physical condition of Miss Geary when last seen in Nathan's company.

Nathan Confesses.

Pittsburg, Oct. 31.—It is rumored that Nathan has made a complete confession of the entire circumstances of the murder of Miss Geary and that his testimony will create a surprise.

Two Killed Here.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 31.—An accident resulting in the loss of two lives occurred on the main line of the Canadian Pacific railroad at Dinorwic.

A special immigration train had stopped for water at Dinorwic when another freight train from the east dashed into the rear of the passenger train, instantly killing two women, injuring five others and setting the passenger coaches on fire.

Three coaches were burned to ashes.

FRISCO IS COMING TO PADUCAH SOON

Prominent Officials Were Here Yesterday to Look Over the Ground and Decide.

WILL CONNECT WITH THE N. C. & St. L. HERE AND GET A LINE TO NASHVILLE

It is Understood the Road Will Cross to Kentucky From Joppa and Build to Paducah.

Beyond any doubt Paducah is to have a new railroad. It will be the Frisco, which some time ago acquired the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, which now extends to Joppa, where the road has an incline.

Yesterday afternoon a visit was paid to our city by the officials of the Frisco railway system. The party included:

Mr. A. J. Davidson, president.

Mr. H. I. Miller, second vice-president.

Mr. A. S. Dodge, third vice-president.

Mr. A. Hilton, general passenger agent of Frisco System.

Mr. Nettleton, superintendent of motive power and machinery.

Mr. C. H. Trenary, superintendent of the road.

Mr. S. J. Cook, general freight agent.

For some time the Commercial club has been trying to have President Davidson visit Paducah, and they were notified that he would arrive at Joppa yesterday at noon. A launch was obtained and a committee proceeded to Joppa to meet the railroad officials. This committee was composed of the following gentlemen:

A. J. Decker, president of the Commercial club.

D. W. Coons, secretary of the Commercial club.

O. L. Gregory, W. P. Hummel, Capt. Bernard Weille.

They met the railroad officials at 2 o'clock in Joppa and proceeded by steamer to Paducah, where automobiles were in waiting to show the gentlemen over the city, which was done in a very effective manner. The party embarked on the steamer at 7 o'clock returning to Joppa where their private car was waiting for them and from which point they proceeded on east. This visit of these high officials is considered one of the most important visits by railroad men to our city for a long time, and their visit is due to the untiring efforts of the Commercial club to interest this road in Paducah. The visitors met with a royal welcome and were sent away well pleased with their visit and surprised at the importance and magnitude of our city and business interests.

These officials will make another visit to Paducah. It is not decided whether they will come to Paducah by water or cross at Joppa and come up by rail. If the arrangement is made it will give the Frisco an inlet to Nashville, Tenn., and the road is competing with the Illinois Central.

From authentic information it was learned this afternoon that the Frisco will come up to Paducah on this side of the river. The transfer by water does not suit the officials of the company and they have intimated that they will cross at Joppa, Ill., and transfer there. From opposite Joppa the road will build to Paducah, connecting with the N. C. & St. L., which will give that line an inlet to Nashville, Tenn., in opposition to the Illinois Central and L. & N.

If the deal goes through, and a Sun reporter learned this afternoon, that it probably would, it will be a great thing for this city. It is possible that a terminal will be established. It is possible also that shops will be built here. This means something, for this, one of the biggest roads in the country, is looking for a southern terminal.

There have been reports that the Frisco would never cross at Joppa because in low water the sand bars showed up too high which would interfere with the transfer boats. These railroad officials have investigated and had the river surveyed across from Joppa and found that they can cross there with transfers without any interference of sandbars.

As Joppa is low it will be a necessity to erect a trestle work out to the hills back of the river bank, but it will be less than a mile long, and this is proposed.

There is no doubt that the Frisco is coming to Paducah and cross at Joppa with transfers and it will be a big thing for this city.

COMPANIES TO INCORPORATE HERE TOMORROW.

A telegram this afternoon from Boston states that tomorrow the two new companies formed after the sale of the public properties, will be incorporated in Paducah.

They are the Paducah Traction company and the Paducah Light and Power company.

There will be fifteen directors in each, and five of these will be Paducahans, as follows: Messrs Jos. L. Friedman, George C. Thompson, W. F. Paxton, Jas. C. Utterback and George C. Wallace.

ALL IN GOOD HEALTH.

Is the News Received From a Polar Expedition.

Christiana, Oct. 31.—News has been received from Captain Amundsen, who left for the pole in June, 1903. Amundsen sent a message from King William Island that all the party is well and he expects to return to San Francisco the present autumn.

A Cereal Mill For Paducah is One of Concerns That Will Soon Locate Here

Paducah is in a position to have one of the largest cereal mills in the country. At present the Commercial and Manufacturers' club is not in a position to give out any information. It is a large mill and will employ not less than 100 people.

The concern makes all kinds of cereals, such as oatmeal, rolled oats, corn meal, etc. It is an institution that will be a benefit to the city. Gradually Paducah is becoming a fine market for corn and this fact is getting known through the efforts of Secretary D. W. Coons, of the Commercial club, and there is no doubt but that soon there will be a cereal mill here. The owner was in the city a few days ago and has gone to Memphis and Cairo.

REMOVING FLOWERS.

 The I. C. to Have More and Larger Flower Beds Next Year.

 Mr. William Keller, gardener of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today taking up all plants in local I. C. flower beds and the depot lawn.

 The depot lawn has several big plants which Mr. Keller desires to retain, but the majority of the flowers will be taken up and thrown away. The Paducah flower beds this summer have attracted a great deal of attention and the road will probably make several new ones next season.

 The awarding of the prize for the prettiest lawn on the system has not been made yet, and there is a great deal of interest taken in this matter.
 Paducah has for the past several years captured first prize, but it is said that Rockport, on the Louisville division, will this year get the prize.

 Cinderella will be here for two nights in a short time.
 Mr. George Bauer, of Bauer's pottery, has gone to Akron, O., to spend two weeks on important business.

 The Forbidden Land Co. arrived in Paducah this morning at 8 o'clock from Cairo and is a big one. There are 55 people in the company and they travel in one private coach and carry two baggage cars for the scenery.

 This is the show which jumped last year from Springfield, Ill., to Paducah on a special train and which got behind a wreck and arrived late. The performance was delayed, the curtain not rising until after 9 o'clock, but the show made up for the patience of the house.

 This is one of the best shows on the road and made a record run in several of the big cities, Chicago being numbered among them. At Cairo last night the show pleased a big house and will likely be greeted by a packed house tonight.

 As a comic opera, "The Forbidden Land" will be found to deserve much favorable consideration, both as to score and libretto. It has many sparkling lyrics, tuneful choruses, numerous solos and part songs which have already found their way into popularity. It is not only good from a musical standpoint, but the book is wonderfully interesting and excellently written. The ensembles are admirable, and the cast is unquestionably one of the best which has been seen here for some time. It is headed by Edward Garvie, a comedian who is no stranger, and includes Charles A. Morgan, W. H. Clarke,
 Thos. Cameron, Hughie Flaherty, H.
 S. Austin, Abbott Adams, Alma You-lin, Grace McArty and Mabel Laffin.

 Musical comedy will entertain the patrons of The Kentucky tomorrow night, when Broadhurst and Currie's company with Mason and Mason as the stars will hold the boards. This organization is well recommended by advance reports from the other cities where it is said to have scored a great success, which seems to be greatly due to the melodious music and the witty dialogue of the play, although the clever performers including a well-drilled chorus are said to deserve much credit.

 Miss Alberta Gallatin and a capable company last night pleased a large audience in "Cousin Kate," at The Kentucky theatre. Miss Gallatin had not been here since seen in "Ghosts" two seasons ago and playgoers were glad to welcome her to Paducah again.

 "Cousin Kate" was last season played here by Roselle Knott, and it is regretted that more people did not see it both times. It is a fine play, and delighted the appreciative audience last night. Miss Gallatin was ably assisted by Wilford Rogers, who played her leads and by Marian Mc-Donald, in an ingenue part, May Wells, in character, and Thomas Kelley, a small boy, in a juvenile part.
 All in the cast were good, but those mentioned were particularly good.
 Mr. Rogers is graceful, convincing and at all times interesting. Miss Gallatin develops her part well, tactfully and artistically and as it all comes out right in the end, there is nothing else that could be desired.

Rev. Roney Arrives.

 ningham in a protracted meeting at rived in the city, and will fill the pul-

$50 STROLL

 IS WHAT KATIE SHAW TOOK WITH BUD NANCE TODAY.

 She Had a Big Pistol and Bud's "We Walk" Was Very Appropriate
 On This Occasion.

 Bud Nance sauntered through the market house this morning about 5 o'clock. He may not have thought about his "we walk" badge, but he walked just the same. Close behind him came Katie Shaw, carrying a gun big enough for a battleship.
 Nance did not look around. He simply kept going, and as long as he did, it was all right. It is said that he thus walked several blocks, past the city hall and back, and once over the woman raised the pistol and pointed it at him, but didn't shoot.

 He finally waited until she got quite close and suddenly wheeled around and seized the pistol, and he was then at liberty to stop walking.

 The parade through the market house aroused considerable interest, but no one wanted to get any closer to the gun than could be helped.

 The woman was later arrested for presenting and flourishing a pistol, and Judge Sanders fined her $50 and costs. It seems jealousy caused the affair.

 Other cases were: John Wood, colored, $20 and costs for striking Jim Crawford; Will Stall, colored, charged with stealing two cows from Bud Eitrod continued.

OVERHEAD WORK

 IS TO BE IMPROVED BY THE CAR COMPANY.

 Estimates Now Being Made—Company Ready to Open New Headquarters.

 The Paducah Traction and Light company, the new owners of the street car properties, is figuring with a view to immediately begin improving the car service and will in a short time begin changing the overhead work.

 Mr. John S. Bleeker, manager of the company, stated this morning that he had men out figuring on the probable cost of the work and that as soon as they had finished, the results of their investigations would be forwarded to headquarters and that the work would begin as soon as the appropriation was made at headquarters.

 Of late a number of trolley wire breaks have been recorded and the wire in some places is rotten and possibly unsafe. The company intends to improve thoroughly the overhead work which will cost many thousand dollars, the exact sum not yet being known.

 The matter of fitting up the new offices has been under consideration and the company is ready as soon as the Kentucky Glass and Queensware Co. vacates the Broadway building, to fit it out. There will be a train-men quarters with reading rooms and bath, but the matter of fitting out a gymnasium in addition has not been definitely settled on.

 The street car management reported that no trouble was experienced last night except the breaking of a trolley wire at 11th and Tennessee streets the result of a bad wire.

 A "clothes line thief" made his appearance in the vicinity of West
 Jackson street last night.

 Mrs. G. W. Sisk and Mrs. R. R.
 Sutherland, residents of Jackson street near 11th, had clothes hanging out on the line, the day's washing, and when they went out to gather them in, found the clothes line bare. Every garment had been taken.
 The police were notified of the theft and are working on the case.

 The ice pitcher was warm compared to a cold shoulder.

Payne's New Discovery

 If the stomach and liver are unable to perform their work properly disease follows, which assumes many distressing phases, among these is the appearance of tape-worm, of which a species even infects the liver, causing much anxiety and pain.
 Payne's New Discovery radically removes this evil.

Extracts from a Sensational Letter.

 For three years I had been suffering with my stomach and bowels, with a vile taste in my mouth and a coated tongue; the sight of food made me sick, although I was often ravenously hungry. Taking seven doses from one bottle of PAYNE'S New Discovery a tape-worm eighty feet long passed from my system. Immediate relief followed. Bloating and dizziness ceased, appetite returned and I am now strong and hearty.

HOLLOWAY WILL GO TO PENITENTIARY

Negro Arrested Here for Murder Takes No Appeal.

Got Eight Years and Will Go to Eddyville to Begin Serving It.

THE K. I. T. LEAGUE SUIT

Two cases of interest to Paducahans have been acted on in circuit court at Hopkinsville. One is that against Jim Holloway, for years a respected colored resident of near Tyler, Kentucky, who failed to take an appeal and will today or tomorrow be taken to Eddyville to serve his eight year sentence.

Jim Holloway, was arrested in Paducah several months ago upon an indictment charging him with the murder of Andrew Bradshaw August 4, 1878. Holloway escaped immediately after shooting Bradshaw and notwithstanding the quarter of a century which had elapsed since the deed was committed, the jury returned a verdict at the June term finding him guilty of voluntary manslaughter and fixing his punishment at eight years confinement in the penitentiary. A new trial was asked for, but the motion was overruled. An appeal was then taken and sentence was suspended for sixty days pending the settlement of the case. Holloway's attorney failed to prepare his bill of exception, etc., required for the appeal and the time having expired the old negro will have to go to the penitentiary without further delay.

The other suit is that of John Feland against the Kitty league for damages for throwing Hopkinsville out of the league last season. The Hopkinsville papers say that the defendant league made no defense, and that the case will consequently be taken up at the February term of court and tried on its merits.

The suit will never amount to anything, as what funds left belonging to the league are in Illinois or Indiana and cannot be brought into the jurisdiction of this court.

It is said that the Cairo officials have the funds and will not turn loose of them. A number of officers and scorers complain they cannot get what is due them. It is said that even President Charles Brown cannot get his salary.

Jesse Saunders Hurt.

Jesse, the son of Major and Mrs. G. W. Saunders, is able to be out today on crutches, after narrowly escaping serious injury last Friday by falling down the stairs at the college. He was going down to his class with other boys and in the rush Jesse fell, and the ligaments in one limb were torn loose. Dr. Stevens dressed the injury. Mayfield Monitor.

His Wife's Tresses are Valued at $2 a Hair in Husband's Replevin Suit

Iola, Kan., Oct. 31.—Two dollars a hair is the value placed upon a lock of his wife's tresses by the husband of Mary Goddard. A suit for the replevin of the little keepsake, as well as reimbursement at the above named figure, has been brought in a justice court.

Mrs. Goddard avers that Devi Harrington secured the lock of hair by stealth and for weeks made life a burden to her threatening to tell Mr. Goddard that she gave the lock of hair as a token of affection. Mrs. Goddard recently took matters into her own hands by attempting to forcibly regain possession of her property, for which she was arrested and fined in police court. The story of the alleged stolen tresses came out at Mrs. Goddard's trial, and resulted in the replevin suit and plea for damages.

A MUSSEL DIGGER IN WATERY GRAVE

Deliberately Got in Way of the Grace Smith.

Thought to Be Alexander Duff—Carnival Company Did Quite a Good Business.

AND OTHER METROPOLIS NEWS

Metropolis, Ill., Oct. 31.—Ike Mizell, owner of the Grace Smith, a tow boat, reports the drowning of a man between this place and Brookport yesterday about 1:30 p. m. He says the unfortunate person was a mussel fisher and, deliberately rowed in front of his tow of logs three or four times although cautioned not to do so. At the time of the accident the party pulled directly in front of the tow, drew in his oars and prepared to be pushed up the river, but the current overturned his boat and swept him underneath. The body has not been found although efforts are being made to recover it. The man is thought to be Alexander Duff, an Irishman, without family or relatives in this country. This makes the second fatal accident to happen Mr. Mizell and the Grace Smith within the past six months, the first being a woman who was one of nine occupants of a gasoline launch which was run down. The rest were rescued, but the woman drowned before assistance could reach her. Mr. Mizell, to The Sun correspondent, stated his determination to immediately sell his boat and quit the river, this last accident being more than he cares to figure in.

TOWN OF HICKORY GROVE.

Will Not Be Confiscated, After All.

The court of appeals has affirmed the decision of the lower court in the case of Max Bloom, etc., against J. M. Sawyer et al, which has for sometime attracted much attention, more especially in the Hickory Grove community. This was a case in which the plaintiffs undertook to establish their claim to the greater part of the town of Hickory Grove, Graves county. It was tried in the lower court, where the plaintiffs lost and now since the highest court has decided in favor of the decision rendered in lower court, the litigation will probably be at an end.

The plaintiffs in this action were represented by Judge D. G. Park, of Paducah, and the defendants by Robbins & Thomas and W. J. Webb of Mayfield.

Daily Thought.

"The price the world should demand is the best service the purchaser can render the race."

RELIEF IS PROMISED.

If the people of Paducah will elect the gentlemen on the republican ticket for councilmen and aldermen, Paducah will get a reduction of at least fifty cents on the $100 in taxes in the city. This is promised, and the promise will be fulfilled. The present administration has forced on the people the most exorbitant tax rates in the history of the city, and has claimed that it could not be helped, despite the fact that the city has to pay the public schools fifteen cents on the hundred less than formerly.

The tax rate can be cut down, and the gang is dislodged and retired to private life, the public is promised the reduction without depriving it of a single benefit. Where there is a will there is a way, in municipal government as well as other things.

The gentlemen on the republican ticket—look at the head of the column at their names—are worthy of the confidence of the people. Some of them have held public office and some have not, but if they are elected they will not be recreant to their trust. They promise relief to the public, and if they did not intend to give it they would not promise it. If they did not intend to give it they could not afford to promise it. The ticket is a good one, and the people should vote for it. Last fall the people wanted a change and elected the republican ticket. The crowd now in power succeeded by questionable methods, but for obvious reasons, in getting rid of enough of the new members to absolutely control city affairs, and it has been controlling them ever since. It has spent the public's money with a lavish hand, and has filled every office possible to fill with some member or friend of the clique. Sometimes he happens to be a good man and often he doesn't but if he does not stand in with the gang he gets no office and no favors.

It is time for the people to stop this, both in the county and city. At least two of the nominees for county offices are said to be physically unable to perform the duties of the offices they seek. Are the people of McCracken county ready to establish a pension bureau?

The main thing for the people of the city and county to consider, however, is taxation. Why are you paying so much taxes? Don't you know that city, county and state taxes amount to $3.17? Did you ever investigate where it goes, and how much of the thousands spent every year in city and county is thrown away—tossed by the gang to its friends?

The best thing to do is to go to the polls next week and defeat both city and county ticket. Make a clean sweep and be on the safe, sure side. At least give the other fellows a trial, and if they do not suit, never put them in again.

And the voters of this tax-ridden city are assured that if they elect the men on the republican ticket—not because they are republicans, but because they are good men and promise relief that has been needed a long time,—their city taxes will be reduced fifty cents on the $100.

In addition, here is what the republicans promise in their platform recently adopted by the city convention:

A clean, honest administration. An economical administration that will reduce taxation, extend public utilities, improve the sanitary condition of the city, extend the sanitary sewerage, dispense with useless city officials and thus cut down expenses, and transact all public business in a prompt, open, business-like way.

More and better schools, more and better graveled roads, and an honest, economical county administration are part of the county platform.

Which will the people take? The democrats have made no promises, and if they had their acts would belie their words. They have been tried and found wanting.

Put aside politics and make up your mind to vote for the best men.

Is there to be no end to the perpetual tax-grabbing in Kentucky?

Industries are not only being kept away, but also driven away. Two steamboat companies have moved their headquarters from Paducah to Evansville because Kentucky attempted to collect excessive taxes. Corporations are charged real estate or property tax, franchise tax, license tax, and other kinds of tax. They are not only charged a tax, but the rate is usually about as steep as it can be made. Every person and concern is expected to contribute to the maintenance of the government, but an investigation of the variety and amount of taxes that have to be paid in many cities of the state and the benefits secured is enough to frighten every new industry away.

Kentucky presents the anomaly of a court of appeals that assumes to be paramount to the federal court. In a number of railroad damage suits federal court has taken jurisdiction and tried the cases. The court of appeals has now come in and decided federal court had no right to try them and sent them back to the state

BOTH FOOD AND MEDICINE.

We like best to call Scott's Emulsion a food-medicine. It is a term that aptly describes the character and action of our Emulsion. More than a medicine—more than a food, yet combining the vital principles of both. It is for this reason that Scott's Emulsion has a distinct and special value in all wasting diseases. There is nothing better to remedy the troubles of imperfect growth and delicate health in children. The action of Scott's Emulsion is just as effective in treating weakness and wasting in adults.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

Courts. Injunctions have been issued by federal court to prevent a trial in the state courts and to proceed with the latter will subject the attorneys to contempt proceedings. Louisville attorneys are wrangling over a case or two of this kind, and now Paducah has one. When they go to defying Uncle Sam, however, someone is likely to get a big bunch of trouble on his hands.

Several letters from the Ragland section today state that the democratic speaking there Saturday was the biggest "fro" on record. No preparations, according to one of the letters, had been made for the speaking, and only about fifteen or twenty people were there. The candidates' main arguments were on the negro question, and they had nothing to say about the county taxes, the scandals in the county and such things. The people of the county want to hear no more demagoguery. They know where they stand. The scales have fallen from their eyes and they realize that a change is necessary, and are going to get it, from all indications.

The board of investigating engineers has reported to Mayor Weaver, of Philadelphia, that the filtration contractors have collected $18,700-000 for $10,856,000 worth of work. This shows that the contractors are as slick as the city officials are stupid or corrupt. And the public has evidently been standing in the fence's corner with a fool's-cap on its head.

It is not yet certain who will be defeated next week but it seems settled that the constitutional amendment has gone glimmering. Every voter should go to the polls and vote against the amendment and bury it and the diabolical scheme it embodies under such an avalanche of ballots that it will never be dug out again.

To the people of Paducah: You know what you have been paying in the way of taxes, and what you have been receiving in return. Are you willing that it should continue? If not, vote against every democratic nominee for the general council, put the gang out of power, and you'll get a lower tax rate and more benefits.

Mr. Hearst is showing an amazing strength in New York, says the Globe-Democrat. It must be an old Bourbon, who wears flap pants and pulls teeth with bullet molds, who can not see that the democratic party is going to pieces everywhere.

$3,000 VERDICT

GIVEN MISS ANNIE NICHOLS IN CIRCUIT COURT TODAY.Lost a Leg in the Dawson Accident—Allison Will Case Now On Trial.

Circuit Court.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the jury in the case of Annie Nichols against the I. C. returned a verdict for $3,000 damages.

The young woman was struck while walking a trestle by an I. C. freight train at Dawson Springs a few years ago at the annual railroad picnic and lost a leg. The case had been hanging fire on account of several matters which had to be settled before the case could come up.

Two were killed in the accident which deprived the plaintiff of a limb.

At press time this afternoon the case of Mrs. Lola Manking against Mrs. Mary C. Allison and others was on trial. This is where the plaintiff a daughter of the late H. C. Allison by his first wife, attempts to annul the will in which the late wife, the defendant, is left a greater portion of the property.

The case of Felix Rudolph, administrator, against Capt. Ed Woolfolk, Sr., was dismissed in circuit court, the case having been settled out of court.

The steamer Monie Bauer, owned by Capt. Woolfolk, scalded a fireman to death. The plaintiff was appointed administrator and brought suit for damages. A compromise was effected and the case thrown out of court.

A judgment for distribution was filed in the case of F. G. Rudolph, administrator, against the Prudential Insurance Co.

A demurrer was filed in the case of the city of Paducah against J. L. Jones. The demurrer sets out the plea that the ordinance giving Mayor Yeiser power to revoke saloon licenses in case of Sunday violation, is unconstitutional. Such an ordinance was passed this year and Jones was fined for violating the Sabbath by keeping open his saloon. Mayor Yeiser revoked his license and sued his bondmen. The court has not passed on the demurrer.

The defense in the case of the Farmers' Bank against M. Bloom and others, made a motion with reasons for a new trial.

The case of J. M. Ford, administrator, against the Paducah City railway, was continued.

Mill Property Sold.

The court of appeals has reversed the case involving a saw mill of the McLeods at Birmingham, Marshall county. It seems that in 1889, Fels and others bought suit against J. C. and G. W. McLeod, of Benton, on account and secured a judgment for $800, but could find nothing to levy on. In 1900 a sawmill was built at Birmingham, Ky., and it was claimed to belong to G. W. McLeod, but creditors of the former firm claimed it belonged to both and attached it. The case has since been in the courts. The circuit court decided it did not belong to both, but the appellate court reversed. Attorneys Oliver & Oliver were attorneys for the successful side.

To Reform School.

Sheriff Jay Williamson, of Carlisle county, passed through here yesterday with a negro and white boy for the reform school at Lexington. One was convicted of horse stealing and the other robbery.

County Court.

A. E. Seaton was this morning granted a peddlers' license for McCracken county.

Courts to Clash.

Wheeler, Hughes and Berry have filed an injunction here in federal court against the administrator of Judson Pearce to prevent a damage suit against the Illinois Central from being tried in the state court. The case has never been tried in the state court but was tried in federal court while pending in the state court and won by the railroad. Judge Husbands then held that he had no jurisdiction after federal court had tried the case, and the case hung fire for sometime until the court of appeals recently decided that federal court had no jurisdiction and held that a trial of such cases in the state courts was proper. In Louisville Judge Evans has in retaliation issued injunctions enjoining attorneys from proceeding in the state courts in such cases, and if they disobey they can be sent to jail for contempt. It is probable that a similar state of affairs will result here. The papers have been forwarded to Judge Evans at Louisville and a temporary injunction is expected to be issued in a few days.

M. Schwab Files Bankruptcy Petition
Moses Schwab, who conducts a clothing establishment at 216 Broadway, today filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy.

He gives liabilities amounting to a total of $9,710, with $4,185 assets. His assets are his stock and fixtures. He has been in business in Paducah for many years, and a general falling off of business is responsible for his action.

The following suits were filed in circuit court today:

Money in Timber Lands.

Fortunes have been made, (and can easily be made today,) by buying Arkansas rich river bottom land, heavily covered with timber, at a nominal price, holding the land for a few years and then selling the timber at twice the price the land and timber both cost, and then have the land cleared and sell it for five times the original purchase price and sometimes ten times the cost. We have a proposition of this kind in 1600 acres of land in Arkansas at only $3.50 per acre. One-third cash, balance 1 and 2 years, at 6 per cent. This land when cleared will rent for $5.00 per acre per year. Full particulars on request. Edgar W. Whittemore Real Estate Agency, Fraternity Building Both phones 835.

Shine 'Em Up

LIQUID VENEER

MAKES OLD THINGS NEW

Liquid Veneer is a wonder! It will make the whole interior of your house shine like new, making re-finishing or re-varnishing entirely unnecessary. It is not a varnish, but a surface food and cleaner, building up the original finish and making it brighter than ever. It is applied with a piece of cheese cloth and no experience is necessary. No drying to wait for. Removes all scratches, stains, dirt, dullness. It can be applied to any finish with beneficial results. Natural wood, as well as any color of paint, will be better for an application of Liquid Veneer.

Liquid Veneer will improve even the most beautiful furniture. It will take that smoky look from the Piano and other Mahogany, and is highly beneficial to Golden Oak, White Mahogany, Silver and other finishes.
Liquid Veneer sells at 50 cents a bottle, and a bottle is enough to renovate the ordinary home. Try it and you will always buy it.

STRANGE THINGS IN THE DISPATCHES

Wireless Telegrams From Coast Caught in Kansas.

Rockefeller's Company Wins $50,000,000 By the Strikes in Russia Which Reduces Oil.

O. O. STEALEY WRITES A BOOK

Leavenworth, Kan., Oct. 31.—Wireless messages from the United States armored cruiser West Virginia, on which President Roosevelt is on his way north, are being intercepted by a wireless telegraph apparatus used by the signal corps at Fort Leavenworth. Maj. George O. Squier, and Capt. William Mitchell were experimenting with an instrument attached to a kite, when they caught messages from the president's boat. They turned their instrument to various keys and intercepted messages from other ships at sea off the Atlantic coast. The kite was about a half mile in the air when the messages were received.

This is the first time that wireless messages have been intercepted this far inland coming from ships at sea.

Oil Trust Gains $50,000,000.

New York, Oct. 31.—John D. Rockefeller is a lucky man. Just when it looked as if the increase in the production of oil would never cease, the Russian revolution comes along and helps him out. Because of the troubles in Russia, no oil is being exported from that country, and the realization of that fact has caused the stock of the Standard Oil Co. to advance 50 points in the last week. This means that the capital stock of the company, which amounts to $100,000,000, has gone up $50,000,000 in market value.

Undertaker Fatally Hurt.

St. Louis, Oct. 31.—C. S. Thomas, aged 36, undertaker of East St. Louis, died at his home, from injuries sustained by a casket falling upon him when he was assisting at the funeral of Mrs. Margaret Campbell. Mrs. Campbell weighed 520 pounds and was considered the largest woman in East St. Louis. Mr. Thomas stumbled and fell, the casket striking his side and back. He continued at his duties, but finally called a doctor who found that three of Thomas' ribs had been fractured and that he was injured internally.

20 Years in Press Gallery.

Washington, Oct. 31.—O. O. Stealey, the Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, has written a book "Twenty years in the Press Gallery," embodying his observations of congress and of public questions since he entered the press galleries at the capital over two decades ago. His acquaintance with public men, both on public and private sides, and his study of the great questions that have arisen, furnish the material for the chapters which deal with many notable incidents and stories of political intrigue. Mr. Stealey has included 100 sketches of the leading senators and representatives during the last twenty years, written by correspondents who were their contemporaries and intimate associates both in Washington and in their respective states.

COMPLAINTS WILL

Be Heard by the Railroad Commission Today.

Railroad Commissioner Mac D. Ferguson has gone to Frankfort, Ky., to attend a meeting of the Kentucky railroad commission today to hear complaints against the C. and O. by the Ashland Coal and Iron company. The complaints were filed by the coal shippers of Eastern Kentucky, who allege that the railroads are charging excessive rates on coal in violation of an agreement made two months ago, by which it was agreed to make a reduction of thirty cents a ton. A lot of coal is now tied up by reason of the proposed advance in rates.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main street, Ottawa, Kans., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c and $1.

SHOT BY COUSIN

15-YEAR-OLD BOY KILLED BY ACCIDENT AT CENTRAL CITY.

Gun Was Struck to Make It Fire With Fatal Effect to the Lad Who Was in Close Range.

Central City, Ky., Oct. 31.—Edgar Wolcott, the fifteen-year-old son of Charles Wolcott, the banker and flour mill proprietor of South Carrollton, was accidentally killed by his cousin, Wendell Moorman, aged seventeen. The boys, accompanied by three other boys, had gone hunting carrying with them an old army musket, which refused to shoot. Young Moorman, in attempting to make it fire, struck it on a tree stump, and Wolcott, being in close range, received the entire charge, which struck on his right side, passing through his body till it touched his heart. His nine-year-old brother, Paul, ran to his assistance and held him in his arms till he died, which was only fifteen minutes. The child then placed his brother on the ground, and charging the older boys in the party, who were so shocked by the accident they seemed not to know what to do, to remain with the dead boy, he said: "I will go tell mother Edgar is dead."

Mrs. Wolcott refused to believe it thinking the child was frightened, and that her oldest son was only slightly injured. Running the entire distance of two miles, she was prostrated at the side of her dead son and is now in a critical condition.

Wendell Moorman is frantic from grief, attempting to secure the weapon of one of his companions in order to take his own life. South Carrollton has not been so stirred in many years, as both boys are members of two of the most prominent and wealthy families of the town and county.

"HAWK," THE DETECTIVE.

Dies at His Home at Milan, Tennessee.

Milan, Tenn., Oct. 31.—C. S. D. Hawkins, the famous detective of this place, died at his home of dipperd flux. He was a detective of the cleverest kind and ran down many criminals in Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois. He was shrewd and persistent in his work and had captured many murderers. He was born in Trigg county, Ky., on May 5, 1841. He spent his earlier life in the mercantile business and later in the produce business. For the past ten years he has followed the life of a detective and has owned a pack of bloodhounds. He won interstate reputation as a detective last February by his skillful work done on the Brown murder case in Louisiana. He worked many weeks before he succeeded in capturing his game.

He was the man, who, with his bloodhounds, captured Jim Mathis, who killed two sheriffs and was convicted and hung. He has brought about the undoing of many bands of criminals. He won laurels by finding out the gang of thieves, burglars, blackmailers and murderers at Waverly, Humphreys county, about two months ago. His wife and six children survive him.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Tex., writes, July 19, 1902: "I have used in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. PELL INTO VAT.

Gray Woodward Badly Scalded Last Night Back of Laundry.

Gray Woodward, colored, who was formerly employed at Dr. J. D. Robertson's office, stepped behind the Paducah laundry at Fifth and Jefferson streets about 9 o'clock last night and fell into a vat of boiling water which some one had left uncovered.

Woodward went in to his arm pits, but managed to hang on to the sides and draw himself out. He went to Dr. Robertson's office where his injuries were dressed. The scalds were so severe that his skin is alleged to have come off in places. He was taken to Riverside hospital.

He is the second person to have come near losing his life in the vat. A white man named Johnson fell into it a year or two ago. The laundry people claim they always keep the vat covered, but that people who go there to carry away the hot water sometimes leave the top off.

The manager of the laundry claims that the boy had no business about the vat, which is enclosed by a fence and to reach which a person has to pass around and come in from a different direction from entering from the street.

The damage suit of Johnson, who fell into the vat some time ago, is now being prepared for the court of appeals. He lost it in the lower court here.

WOLF DIES.

Child left in Judge Lightfoot's Yard Succumbed Yesterday.

Mary Florence, the wolf found in County Judge R. T. Lightfoot's yard about a month ago, died yesterday afternoon at the Home of the Friends. The child was left in the official's yard in a basket, and at first seemed strong and healthy, but later began to droop and fade away. It was named for the matron and assistant matron of the Home.

The funeral took place at 10 o'clock this morning from the Home, services by Rev. T. J. Owen, burial at Oak Grove.

Judge Kearby Dying.

It was rumored here yesterday afternoon that Judge Hiram Kearby was dead at Hickman, but a telephone message from that place today said that he was still alive but in a dying condition. He has been critically ill for many weeks and little hopes of his recovery are entertained.—Fulton Leader.

"It would break her heart if you offered to give her money in that way. She'd hate it, Monty. It is foolish, perhaps, but you know we can't take your money."

"I thought you—that you—oh, this knocks all the joy out of it!" he burst out desperately.

"Dear Monty!"

"Let's talk it over, Peggy. You don't understand," he began, dashing at what he thought would be a break in her resolve.

"Don't!" she commanded. And in her blue eyes was the hot flash he had felt once or twice before.

He rose and walked across the floor, back and forth again and then stood

She stood straight and tall before him, before her, a smile on his lips—a rather pitiful smile, but still a smile. There were tears in her eyes as she looked at him.

"It's a confounded puritanical prejudice, Peggy," he said in futile protest, "and you know it."

"You have not seen the letters that came for you this morning. They're on the table over there," she replied, ignoring him.

He found the letters and resumed his seat in the window, glancing half heartedly over the contents of the envelopes. The last was from Grant & Ripley, attorneys, and even from his abstraction it brought a surprised "B. Jove!" He read it aloud to Margaret.

Sept. 29.
Montgomery Brewster, Esq., New York:
Dear Sir:—We are in receipt of a communication from Mr. Sweetenham Jones of Montana conveying the sad intelligence that your uncle, James T. Sedgwick, died on the 24th inst. at the hospital in Portland after a brief illness. Mr. Jones at this time has qualified in Montana as the executor of your uncle's will and has retained us as his eastern representatives. He incloses a copy of the will, in which you are named as sole heir, with conditions attending. Will you call at our office this afternoon if it is convenient? It is important that you know the contents of the instrument at once. Respectfully yours, GRANT & RIPLEY.

For a moment there was only amazement in the air. Then a faint, bewildered smile appeared in Monty's face and reflected itself in the girl's.

"Who is your Uncle James?" she asked.

"I've never heard of him."

"You must go to Grant & Ripley's at once, of course."

"Have you forgotten, Peggy?" he replied, with a hint of vexation in his voice, "that we are to read Oliver Optic this afternoon?"

CHAPTER IV.

YOU are both fortunate and unfortunate, Mr. Brewster," said Mr. Grant, after the young man had dropped into a chair in the office of Grant & Ripley the next day. Montgomery wore a slightly bored expression, and it was evident that he took little interest in the will of James T. Sedgwick. From far back in the recesses of memory he now recalled this long lost brother of his mother. As a very small child he had seen his Uncle James upon the few occasions which brought him to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brewster. But the young man had dined with the Dews the night before and Barbara had had more charm for him than usual. It was of her that he was thinking when he walked into the office of Sweetenham Jones' lawyers.

"The truth is, Mr. Grant, I'd completely forgotten the existence of an uncle," he responded.

"It is not surprising," said Mr. Grant genially. "Every one who knew him in New York nineteen years ago believed him to be dead. He left the city when you were a very small lad, going to Australia, I think. He was off to seek his fortune, and he needed it pretty badly when he started out. This letter from Mr. Jones comes like a messenger from the dead. Were it not that we have known Mr. Jones for a long time, handling affairs of considerable importance for him, I should feel inclined to doubt the whole story. It seems that your uncle turned up in Montana about fifteen years ago and there formed a staunch friendship with old Sweetenham Jones, one of the richest men in the far west. Sedgwick's will was signed on the day of his death, Sept. 24, and it was quite natural that Mr. Jones should be named as his executor. That is how we became interested in the matter, Mr. Brewster."

"I see," said Montgomery, somewhat puzzled. "But why do you say that I am both fortunate and unfortunate?"

"The situation is so remarkable that you'll consider that a mild way of putting it when you've heard everything. I think you were told in our note of yesterday that you are the sole heir. Well, it may surprise you to learn that James Sedgwick died possessed of an estate valued at almost $7,000,000."

Montgomery Brewster sat like one petrified, staring blankly at the old lawyer, who could say startling things in a level voice.

"He owned gold mines and ranches in the northwest, and there is no question as to their value. Mr. Jones in his letter to us briefly outlines the history of James Sedgwick from the time he landed in Montana. He reached there in 1885 from Australia, and he was worth $30,000 or $40,000 at the time. Within five years he was the owner of a huge ranch, and scarcely had another five years passed before he was part owner of three rich gold mines. Possessions accumulated rapidly; everything he touched turned to gold. He was shrewd, careful and thrifty, and his money was handled with all the skill of a Wall street financier. At the time of his death in Portland he did not owe a dollar in the world. His property is absolutely unincumbered—safe and sound as a government bond. It's rather overwhelming, isn't it?" the lawyer concluded, taking note of Brewster's expression.

"And he left everything to me?"

"With a proviso."

"Ah!"

"I have a copy of the will. Mr. Ripley and I are the only persons in New York who at present know its contents. You, I am sure, after hearing it, will not divulge them without the most careful deliberation."

Mr. Grant drew the document from a pigeonhole in his desk, adjusted his glasses and prepared to read. Then, as though struck by a sudden thought, he laid the paper down and turned once more to Brewster.

MURRELL BUCKNER

IS DOING WELL IN TEXAS AND HAS ENTERED POLITICS.

Former Paducah Boy Is Very Popular in the Lone Star State.

State Topics for October 29, "a Journal of the people," published at Dallas, and Austin, Tex., under the caption "True Tale of a Texan," has this to say of a former Paducah boy, giving also his picture:

"On the 16th day of September, 1875, in the city of Paducah, which stands at the confluence of the Tennessee and Ohio rivers, there was great rejoicing in the house of Buckner, and the wild roses of old Kentucky nodded and smiled at one another. Even the bluegrass meadows seemed bluer for on that day Murrell L. Buckner came into the world. The childhood of young Buckner was not different from that of the average child of aristocratic birth in the old Kentucky state, but the precocity of the child gained for him the admiration of his elders, and which grew all the stronger as the years advanced and he developed into manhood. At an early age he was sent to the Davis Military Institute at Winston, N. C., where he remained two years. He made such rapid progress in his studies that, when only thirteen, Governor Buckner appointed him a cadet to the Kentucky Military Institute, which he quitted to come to Texas in 1892. His love for military life remained with him, and the interest he took in military affairs caused him to be elected captain of the Metropolitan Guard of Dallas, a position he held until his appointment to the higher position of assistant adjutant general Texas national guard, with the title of major. Major Buckner has ever taken an interest in politics, and at present he is assistant secretary of the state Democratic executive committee, a position tendered him by State Chairman Andrews, and which he was prevailed on to accept by his friends.

Like the average Kentuckian, Major Buckner is a true man, and while he will go to the furthest extent for a friend, his enemies will find him ever ready to meet them, but always chivalrous and open and above-board in all he says and does. Though still a young man, Major Buckner is not a bachelor. He has a charming wife to preside over his pretty home out in North Dallas, and some of his friends are ungenerous enough to say that she is the cause of his being such a good man. Whatever the cause, the major is all right, and in addition to the good qualities noted above, he is also regarded as one of Dallas' most progressive and public-spirited citizens. And right here we nominate Murrell L. Buckner for governor of Texas in 1910."

BADLY SHAKEN UP.

Accident to Mr. James Fuller and His Mother-in-Law Yesterday.

Mr. James Fuller, former school trustee, and his mother-in-law Mrs. Rayburn, were painfully hurt about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon on Burnett street between 11th and 12th by another vehicle colliding with the one they occupied. Mr. Fuller now resides near Maxon's Mill and had been to the city, his mother-in-law starting back with him to make his family a brief visit. The vehicles were going at a good clip when the collision took place and Mr. Fuller and the lady, who is quite old, were thrown out. No bones were broken, but both had to return to the Rayburn home at 945 Clay street for medical attention.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors and they told me one of my lungs was badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well."

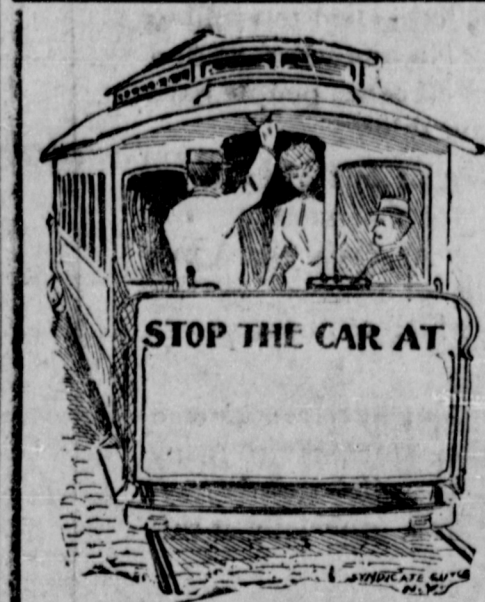

It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Sold by Alvey & List.

IN the matter of gifts for a bride nothing is so important to avoid as duplication. No one wants to find that a number of other people have given the same thing.

The individuality of our gift articles is their best recommendation. We carry very few of each piece, but make a point of offering a large variety from which to choose.

Many Kentuckians in Other States Offer Gifts to Historical Society

Many ex-Kentuckians and children of Kentuckians now living in other states have become interested in the plan to put the State Historical Society on a more substantial basis in the new capitol. Several have written here offering gifts to be placed in the society's rooms, consisting of china, glass and silver sets.

Descendants of Kentuckians in Colorado, New York and Oregon have written to the secretary, Mrs. Jennie C. Morton, to know if their contributions must be historic old. Hon. F. A. Richardson, librarian of the supreme court of Colorado, writes: "I will send something very nice for the chieftain in the new capitol this week."

Mrs. Charles Dovernus, of New York, writes: "I must contribute to that china for the new capitol. Must the china be old? Only let me know."

Mrs. Hermon, of Oregon, writes: "My grandfather was a Kentuckian and for his sake I want my gift to be in the new capitol. Unlike Miss Slaughter's grandfather, he was a Kentucky farmer only, yet for his sake I will send whatever you indicate, china or silver."

Mrs. Morton desires such pieces of china, glass or silver, as the donor may wish to give. A cup and saucer and plate, a glass goblet or tumbler or a silver spoon. Any one of these souvenirs or all of them. It is with the donor to select the gift, which becomes historic hereafter as illustrative of the patriotism and generosity of Kentuckians. They honor themselves as well as their ancestors in the memorial gift.

The Owner of the Pittsburg Team Was Once a Boat Clerk on the Ohio

It will be interesting to know that Barney Dreyfuss, the present owner of the Pittsburg National league baseball club, was well known in Evansville circles back in the 80's says the Evansville Journal-News. Barney is remembered by many Evansville men, who knew him when he was a "mud" clerk on the steamer John Gilbert, running into this port at that time. He was an enthusiastic baseball player and well remembers the time in 1885 when he was umpiring a game of ball in this city. The crowds took exceptions to his ruling and after the game chased him into the city, where he secured police protection.

He visited the city while a member of the Paducah, Ky., team. At present Dreyfuss has a cosy office in the metropolis of Pittsburg, surrounded by an office force that does nothing but work on baseball. He is one of the well known baseball men of the United States and has made a great success out of the sport as a business. Try-outs were rather expensive to him last season. He is said to have expended $18,000 for men for trial and did not succeed in locating a phenomenon in all his experiments.

FREEDOM TO RUSSIA

promises eventually universal suffrage.

The title of "Autocrat of all Russians" with which the manifesto begins, now takes its place with the title of "King of Jerusalem" borne by the King of Spain and the emperor of Austria, and with other obsolete titles of European sovereigns.

J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and Geo. W. Perkins were with Finance Minister Kokovsov when the latter received the news. It was a dramatic moment. The minister was called to the telephone and when he returned he was greatly agitated and said:

"Gentlemen, the old order of things has changed. Russia has a constitution."

The news spread like wild fire throughout the city. Revolutionists and active agitators generally, declared loudly that the government's promises would no longer suffice and the strike must be continued.

In fact, an hour after the news became known, revolutionists took occasion to throw the first bomb in St. Petersburg used since the strike began. The incident occurred near the Polytechnic school, but there was no fatality.

Practically all classes, except the Socialists and the extreme radicals, however, read the document with delight and amazement, declaring that it could not fail to rally the moderates to the support of Witte.

Witte already has tentatively selected his cabinet. He will himself hold no portfolio. All present ministers, except war, navy and foreign affairs, will be retired.

Prince Alexis Obolensky, one of the count's former assistants in ministry and finance, will become the minister of territory; M. Romanoff, another of Witte's former assistants, finance portfolio; M. Koni, Russia's ablest jurist, minister of justice; M. Krosovsky, president of the St. Petersburg municipal council, minister of education; M. Ziegler Von Schaffhausen, chief of railroad department, will become minister of ways and communications.

Russians Sing and Cheer Czar.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The celebration of the issuance of the imperial manifesto still continued at 3 o'clock this morning (Tuesday).

In many streets the crowds sang the national hymn, cheering for the emperor and shouting themselves hoarse.

Soon after midnight several hundred persons gathered in the great square before the winter palace and sang the chant from the church liturgy addressed to the emperor and the national anthem and finished with rousing cheers for his majesty and the imperial family.

ROPE PARTED

And Instantly Killed a Man on a Towboat.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 31.—James King was instantly killed yesterday by a rope breaking and flying back with a rebound. It struck him in the head, crushed his skull and broke his neck.

King, with three other river men, were sent out to aid the towboat Finley which was disabled in the canal. In attempting to tow the boat the rope cable parted and King was killed.

The towboat Finley, in passing down the canal, became fouled by a floating log which was caught in the machinery. She was floating helplessly when the John A. Wood saw her signals of distress and sent King and three others to attach a cable to her. After the rope was tied the men pulled away and the Wood began to tow the Finley out of the canal. At the foot of 33rd street the strain became too much for the hempen rope and it parted. King was killed instantly and his companions escaped. On reaching the shore Dr. C. H. Harris was called, and found his neck broken and his skull fractured.

Board of Works Meets Tomorrow.

The board of public works will meet in regular session tomorrow afternoon at the city hall but nothing of importance will come up. Only the routine work, the matters referred from the legislative boards, has to be acted on. The meeting will likely last a few minutes only.

THE PENNYRILERS

IS THE NAME OF A NEW TRAVELING MEN'S ORGANIZATION.

Hon. Jerre Porter, Formerly of Paducah, is Among the Organizers.

A meeting of well-known traveling men was held in the Commercial Hotel in Clinton Wednesday, Oct. 25th, and organized the West Kentucky Traveling Men's Association to be known as the "Pennyrilers," of West Kentucky, says the Clinton Gazette.

The following are charter members:

Adam Jorder, of St. Louis, elected president; E. M. Wyler, of St. Louis, vice-president; Jerry M. Porter, of Clinton, secretary; John B. Greaney, of Cairo, treasurer; Mark B. Glasgow, Louisville, Dave Ochser Philadelphia, Ed. R. Higgins, of St. Louis.

Mr. Jorder, the president, was one of the charter members of the South-east Missouri association and it is to be after the plans of that great association. The purpose of the association is the promotion of good fellowship among the traveling men of Kentucky, to bring them together in annual outings of recreation and pleasure at some point in West Kentucky, to the end that better interest may exist among them, their customers and the firms they represent.

Any drummer whose territory embraces any part of West Kentucky is eligible to membership.

It is understood that all who wish to may become members by sending their application, with $2, to Jerry M. Porter, the secretary, Clinton, Ky., that a card of membership will be sent and the co-operation of all such be fully reciprocated.
